Dear Parents,

Welcome back! I hope that you and your family enjoyed the holidays. I trust that your child(ren) are well rested and ready for the start of the second part of the school year.

Please note that there will be no school on Thursday, January 10th, in lieu of the Islamic New Year. The school will be open as usual on Sunday, January 13th.

Calendars indicating tests dates (both Arabic and English) have been placed outside all grades 2 through 5 classrooms. Students are required to write in all homework and test dates inside their student planners. Please sign your child's planner on a daily basis and make sure he or she returns it to school for teachers to check.

If you have concerns about the academic performance of your child, please call the Office at 243-0607 (ext. 233) to set up an appointment to see your child's teacher(s). As I mentioned in my previous newsletters, when teachers and parents work as a team and support one another, children benefit academically.

A comprehensive report card will be sent home on February 11th. Your child's grades in all subject areas will be indicated on this report card.

Best wishes to you and your family in 2008. Thank you for your continued support.

Best Wishes,

Andy Mirhaj
